Cities of India Ending in pur and abad

Jodhpur was founded by Rao Jodha of the Rajput Rathore Clan.

Originally named Ashaval, Ahmedabad got its current name from the Muslim Rajput Sultun Ahmed Shah.

Jafrabad is named aftera Gujarati Sultan. It became part of the Janjira State which was controled by Siddhis. East African decendents of former slaves who were known as good seamen.

Allahabad: Place of Allah (god)

Rampur: Place of the Hindu God Ram (or Rama) an avatar of Vishnu

Chandrapur means place of the moon.

Shahjahanpur was named after the Mughal Emperor Shahjahan.

Telangana was the heartland of several Muslim States such as the Bahmanis and the Hyderabad state thus it has many cities ending in abad

Main map labels

Jammu and Kashmir
Himachal Pradesh
Jalalabad
Punjab
Chandigarh
Uttarakhand
Haryana
NCT of Delhi
Uttar Pradesh
Gorakhpur
Muzaffarpur
Tezpur
Arunachal Pradesh
Assam
Nagaland
Meghalaya
Manipur
Tripura
Mizoram
Allahabad
Mirzapur
Jehianabad
Bhagalpur
Bihar
Aurangabad
Jodhpur
Rajasthan
Udaipur
Madhya Pradesh
Jabalpur
Jharkhand
Jamshedpur
West Bengal
Ahmedabad
Gujarat
Hoshangabad
Bilaspur
Sambalpur
Burhanpur
Nagpur
Raipur
Chhattisgarh
Odisha
Jafrabad
Daman and Diu
Dadra and Nagar Haveli
Aurangabad
Maharashtra
Sholapur
Humnabad
Telangana
Kolhapur
Goa
Karnataka
Andhra Pradesh
Andaman and Nicobar
Puducherry
Kerala
Tamil Nadu
Tiruppur

N
0 125 250 500 Miles

Telangana inset

Maharashtra
Chandrapur
Adilabad
Nizamabad
Mustabad
Telangana
Zahiabad
Secunderabad
Hyderabad
Vikrabad
Chhattisgarh
Odisha
Andhra Pradesh
Karnataka
N
0 12.5 25 50 Miles

North inset

Himachal Pradesh
Punjab Chandigarh
Shahabad Najibabad
Uttarakhand
Haryana
Ghaziabad Hapur Moradabad
Delhi
Faridabad Sikandrabad Rampur Shahabad
Shahjahanpur
Rajasthan
Sitapur
Bharatpur Firozabad
Jaipur
Uttar Pradesh
Faizabad
Madhya Pradesh
Kanpur
N
0 25 50 100 Miles